About Telix Pharmaceuticals Limited

Telix is an Australian public company (ASX: TLX) headquartered in Melbourne with international operations in Europe, the US and Japan. Our vision is to be a leading, global biopharmaceutical company in the field of “theranostic” radiopharmaceuticals and we are currently developing a portfolio of clinical-stage products that address significant unmet medical needs in oncology and rare diseases.

About the Role

With the recent development of a product portfolio management team and an expansion of Telix activities into China, this position is required to project manage the successful completion of Chinese product development activities within the allocated budget and timelines. In addition, this role will act as a project liaison between all key functions such as manufacturing, non-clinical, clinical, quality, commercial, intellectual property, and business development to ensure the timely delivery of all project milestones. Other responsibilities include monitoring all project activities performed by external partners and acting as the key internal contact for specific projects under your management.

About You

You are tertiary qualified in life sciences with ideally, a PhD. You can demonstrate practical work experience in a similar role for a pharmaceutical/biotechnology company and/or similar project management roles in a parallel business. You have proven leadership skills, lateral thinking capability and are agile. You possess a strong understanding of the drug development industry (drug/device/technology/etc.) as well as Good Manufacturing Practice, Good Clinical Practice & International Council for Harmonization. Proficiency in Mandarin (or another dialect) is also required.

You also have a global mindset and are willing to work collaboratively with global team members across multiple time zones.

Why work at Telix?

We are a dynamic, fast-growing biopharmaceutical company where employees have a shared purpose: to help people with cancer and rare diseases live longer, better quality lives. This is an exciting time for Telix and we are looking for like-minded, passionate professionals to join us on the journey.

Application deadline is Wednesday 5th January 2022.

No agency submissions will be considered for this role.
